FACILITATOR

Michael Morwood . . .

has over 40 years' experience in retreat, education, parish and youth ministries in Australia and has in recent years concentrated his efforts in the United States. Since 1990 he has worked in adult faith formation all over the globe. Currently, he is associate director of Adult Spiritual Renewal & Empowerment. Morwood is interested in helping Christians examine what they believe and why they believe it, what they imagine and why they imagine the way they do. He is interested in helping Christian's articulate faith in Jesus, in ways that resonate with contemporary understanding of our place in the universe.

Michael is highly regarded as an inspiring and challenging speaker on the need to reshape Christian imagination, thought and liturgical language.

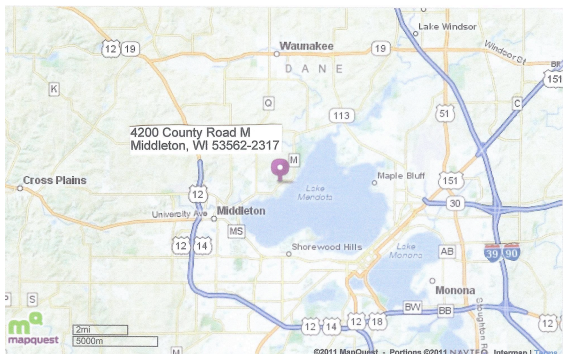

Michael is the author of

New Story
Affects Prayer

Praying a New Story by Michael Morwood [2004]

Page 7 - "It makes a big difference how we pray if we view God as a person in heaven or, as the Baltimore Catechism put it, if we view God 'everywhere.' For many of us prayer has been an effort to contact an 'elsewhere God.' What happens when we shift our attention to an 'everywhere God' --- a sustaining Presence in all, through all, never absent, never distant, not in one place more than in any other place, a Presence 'in whom we live and move and have our being'?"
