Sermon on the Mount: Unreasonable Expectations
with Irrelevant Rewards?

What did Jesus really say on the Mount?

What was the essence of the message?

What could it possibly mean for us here and now?

What relationship do these Beatitudes have with the ten commandments?

_____

Come crack open some new ideas about the

Beatitudes and Spirituality
with John Chuchman, MA, fellow traveler, lay minister,
and "bushel tipper"

and

Karen Schrauben, Lay Minister, and fellow Sacred Quest associate

John Chuchman

Married in Chicago, father of four children.
John has an MA in Pastoral Ministries, a Certificate in Spirituality, and certification through the National Catholic Ministry to the Bereaved. After 32 years with Ford Motor Company, John answered the call of the Holy Spirit and began his Ministry to the Bereaved. John's call has grown into a new career and has become for him, a new life. Frustrated by so many people keeping their God-given gifts hidden under a bushel because of a sense of unworthiness, John has helped a number of his contacts move their lights out from under the bushel, and thus has been labeled a "Bushel Tipper."

Karen Schrauben

Wife of 47 years, mother of three grown children and grandmother. Karen has a Certificate in Pastoral Ministry and is a Lay Ecclesial Minister in the Diocese of Lansing. Over the years, she has served as Pastoral Associate of a parish, hospital chaplain, small-faith group facilitator, mentor, and companion. Currently, Karen is a hospice bereavement and spiritual care volunteer. As a retreat and workshop facilitator, Karen brings a keen sense of the mystery of life through her love of people, enthusiasm, and deep faith and her free-flowing laughter, tears, and joy.
